Dear Noel GT Scholars:

It is with great sadness that I write this letter to you. I am not saying goodbye, just see you later.

Over the summer, I took an administrative position that has moved me to the administration building. This position will allow me to work with more students and also help influence your education as you enter junior high and high school.

I will miss each and every one of you tremendously! I cherish all the great memories of our years together in the GT classroom. I will come by from time to time to visit the GT classroom as I will be working closely with your new GT teacher, Mrs. Richards.

Mrs. Richards is a dear friend of mine and I know that she will love each of you as much as I do and you will love her just as much. She is very eager to get to know each of you. She loves technology and is eager to learn from you some of the great programs that you are experts in as well as all you have learned about being a true scholar. Of course, I have bragged so much about you to her.

Scholars, continue to pursue your dreams and remember what I have always said, "Don't ever let anyone ever tell you that you can't achieve your dreams." Dream Big!

I will be keeping track of your accomplishments and of course cheering for you as you reach those milestones, so don't forget to let me know. My website will continue to be up (www.noelgt.org) and I hope that you will drop me a line by writing to the guestbook or writing me an email, loerao@noelgt.org. I am also going to set up a twitter...so check the website from time to time.

Please stay in touch. I look forward to hearing from you.

Lots of love,

Omega Loera
